Dear Sir:
According to your deelre, I send you the present letter.

I have taken your address from one note finded into the pocket of one pair of trousers, that I took from the UNRRA.

I thank you from the bottom of my heart, Dear Unknown Sir, for your good action.

Believe me that, with thees dress, I have saved from the cold my two boys, because I am ill and old and without work. Our joy is indescribable and we wish God to have all your family well.

With our thanks,

AT MIDWAY CHURCH FOR D. W. CLARK

Lower retail prices are scheduled in some instances on bakery products, including cakes, doughnuts, pasteries and cinamon buns which have been reduced in weight in conformity with the famine emergency commattee's recommendation's, J. S. Murchison of the local office of price control said today.

"For each full cent saved in material cost for a sales unit of product, bakers will be required to make a corresponding reduction in consumer price," he stated. "However, price reductions for fractions of a cent saved in materials costs will not be required. This action, effective immediately, is the third emergency meanare taken by OPA in line with the recommendation of the famine committee for a 10 per cent weight reduction in bread and bakery products." Funeral services orf David Wo-mack Clark, aged 62, of Winkler, who died in the P. and S. Hospital Saturday morning, were held at the Midway church at 8. p. m. Sunday. Interment was in the Birdston cemetery.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS AT DAWSON MEETING

SPEAKER WARNS AGAINST EXTREMISTS EFFORTS TO DOMINATE STATE

Robert Calvert, Hill county attorney and potential candidate for governor, charged the Navarro County Young Democratic Club in Saturday County Young Democratic Club in its monthly meeting Saturday night which was held in Dawson, to "follow the safe middle course" and fight all efforts of the extremists to dominate Texas government policy. "It was the great middle class," said Calvert, "that made America great, and it is only this class that can save America today."

colvert was introduced by W. V. Harrison, superintendent of Frost schools, who described Calvert as a former Speaker of the Houss of Representatives and a champion of the fight in the state democratic convention in 1944 when the Texas Regulars tried to sabotage the par-
